Story Time, Tuesdays @ 10:30AM: Ages 0 through 6.

The kids program you expect from a public library, with a RPL twist. Expect stories, art, and other early literacy activities

Rhyme Time, Fridays @ 11AM: Babies & Toddlers.

An early literacy playgroup for our littlest patrons; expect rhymes, songs, movement, and play!

Head Start Story Time, Wednesday 3/4 at 10:00AM.

The students from the Ridgway Northern Tier Head Start class will visit RPL for a story and craft. The Children's Room is reserved during this time.

Needlework Club, Monday 3/9 @ 4:30PM: All ages, children under 10 accompanied by an adult.

An informal, social meeting to chat and share fiber arts tips over coffee and tea with other interested needleworkers. Bring your own supplies & tools.

LEGO Club, Wednesday 3/11 @ 4:30PM: Students in grades K-5.

Build, create, and innovate! LEGO Club is the ultimate creative hangout for students in grades K-5.. Whether taking on a timed challenge or engineering a new world, kids will flex their critical thinking skills one brick at a time. Open to the whole family—big and little siblings are always welcome!

Dickinson Teen Group, Tuesday 3/17 at 2:30 - 4:00

The students with the Dickinson Community and School Based Behavioral Health group will visit RPL for wellness-based teen crafts and projects.

Family Story Time, Saturday 3/21 @ 11AM: Ages 0-10.

Celebrate the first Saturday of spring with the debut of our newest StoryWalk® installation, The Hidden Rainbow by Christie Matheson. Meet us at the trailhead beside Ace Hardware for a vibrant outdoor story and a hands-on craft session making DIY wildflower seed bombs. These mess-free seed bombs are perfect for little hands to mix and take home to help our local pollinators flourish. In the event of rain, we will move the fun inside to the library. This event is FREE and perfect for ages 0-10. No registration required.

Book Club, Wednesday 3/25 at 4:15PM or Thursday 2/26 at 10:15AM: 18+

Read and discuss contemporary fiction with other adult readers. Our Wednesday afternoon session is currently full. There is still space in our Thursday morning session. Email Jessica at library\_director@ridgwaylibrary.org to learn more.

The Science of Beer with Dr. Paul Rees, Saturday 3/28 at 5PM: 21+

Join Dr. Paul Rees, a certified brewing expert, for a deep dive into the chemistry of water, hops, malt, and yeast. You'll explore how these ingredients interact through a guided tasting of unique home brews and a breakdown of the fermentation process. Come prepared to learn the science behind the pint, sample some small-batch favorites, and discuss all things craft beer. Visit our website to register.

A Difficult Book: Book Club featuring House of Leaves by Mark Z. Danielewski, Tuesday 3/31 at 6PM at *The Brew Bank

Ready for a challenge? Join us at the Brew Bank for "A Difficult Book Club," where we'll tackle Mark Z. Danielewski's cult classic, House of Leaves. This free, two-part multimedia event is designed for adults (21+) and explores the book's complex themes through guided discussion. The first meeting covers pages 1–311 on March 31st at 6:00 PM, with the conclusion following on April 14th. Registration is required, and the library will provide copies for RPL patrons to borrow. Visit our website to register.
